

Newsletter September 2007

From the Editor

Welcome to the latest issue of the EGEE newsletter. This accompanies international Science Grid This Week, our online magazine produced in collaboration with OSG. Below you'll find articles of interest from iSGTW as well as brief news from the project and upcoming events. If you have any comments or questions, the team can be contacted by sending an email to project-eu-egee-dissemination@cern.ch.

Regards,

Sarah Purcell
EGEE Dissemination, Outreach and Communications Manager

News from the Project

EGEE-III proposal

It's been a busy few months in the Project Office, but the proposal for EGEE III was successfully submitted in time for the deadline on September 20. The Editorial Board, Project Management Board and all Activity managers have worked tirelessly, despite all obstacles, to produce the final version, encompassing some exciting plans for the next couple of years.

EGEE events

The registration for the EGEE'07 conference in Budapest is still open and you can register at the event. All information and logistics details can be found on the conference website: <http://www.eu-egee.org/egee07/home.html>. The programme includes daily plenaries from world-renowned keynote speakers, the innovative business track, an applications track, a collaborating projects track, a cross-activity track and a demo and exhibition area where businesses and Grid related projects will present themselves and their particular field of interest to the Grid community.
